Employment

- Institute of Ecology and Biodiversity (IEB-Chile) — Santiago, Chile
  Adjunt Researcher — March 2019 - Present
  - BIODATA: I am the coordinator of the BIODATA team at the IEB. The aim of this project is to work on the digitization of Chile's biological collections.
- School of GeoSciences, University of Edinburgh — Edinburgh, UK
  Newton International Fellow — Feb 2017 - Jan 2019
  - Genus-level phylogeny for trees: This project, funded by The Royal Society, was a collaboration with Dr. Kyle Dexter from the University of Edinburgh. We built a global phylogeny for trees in order to unveil the evolutionary structure of biodiversity and to explore the main forces driving the diversification.
- Institute of Ecology and Biodiversity (IEB-Chile) — Santiago, Chile
  Postdoc-Fondecyt — Dec 2013 - Nov 2016
  - Phylodiversity patterns: In collaboration with Dr. Juan Armesto, during this project we studied the similarities between phylodiversity pattern across the latitudinal gradient in southern South America, and the elevational gradient in the tropical Andes.
